William Ruger serves as the vice president for research and policy at the Charles Koch Institute and the vice president for research at the Charles Koch Foundation. Ruger was previously an Associate Professor in the Department of Political Science at Texas State University. Ruger earned his Ph.D. in Politics from Brandeis University and an A.B. from the College of William and Mary.

He is the author of the biography Milton Friedman, and co-author of two books on state politics including the new 4th edition of Freedom in the 50 States. His most recent articles appeared at Foreign Affairs, International Studies Quarterly, and Civil Wars. He is on the Board of Editors of Armed Forces and Society.

Ruger has been interviewed frequently for television and radio, appearing on MSNBC, Fox News, CNBC, and Fox Business, and he has written op-eds for a number of newspapers and magazines. Ruger is a veteran of the Afghanistan War and an officer in the U.S. Navy (Reserve Component).

Twitter: @WillRuger