

MCDONNELL INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS ACADEMY
WELCOMES

ALFONSO NAVARRO BERNACHI

Head Consul | Consulate of Mexico - Kansas City, Missouri

“Mexico’s General Election 2018: The Institutional Strengths of the Mexican Electoral System.”

Monday, April 02, 2018

1:00 PM

Women’s Building Formal Lounge

Danforth Campus | Washington University in St. Louis

This year, Mexico will hold its largest election, with 3,406 positions to be disputed, from President to municipal clerks. This presentation will focus on the Mexican electoral system and the challenges facing this year’s electoral authority.

Alfonso Navarro Bernachi
Head Consul
Consulate of Mexico in Kansas City, Missouri

Born in Mexico City, Mr. Navarro-Bernachi obtained a degree in Communication at Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico City and a Master’s Degree in Diplomatic Studies awarded by the Diplomatic Academy

(Instituto Matías Romero) of the Mexican Secretariat of Foreign Relations. He is a career member of the Mexican Foreign Service since 1993 currently with the rank of Minister. He has been serving as Head Consul of Mexico in Kansas City, MO since June 2016. Mr. Navarro-Bernachi has taken part in various official commissions in Canada, Spain, El Salvador,

Honduras and the Pacific Alliance related to Consular Protection matters, and also in organizations such as the Regional Conference on Migration (RCM), and the “Global Consular Forum”. He has published articles on Consular Diplomacy, Communication and Foreign Policy.